A special meeting of the Young Men's Republican Club will be held next Thursday evening at Dodd's Hall to ratify the nomination made at the Minneapolis Convention.

A game of ball was played between the Bloomfield and Rutherford base-ball nines on Decoration Day. Both teams played good ball. In the sixth inning the Bloomfields hit Berry very hard. Decker, Hartmann, Ashby and Vought put up a splendid game. Vought distinguished himself in the box by striking out eleven men. Decker caught a splendid game, also making a home run. In the seventh inning Decker gave way to Ashby, he going to centre field, where he made a phenomenal catch with one hand. Perry did well at first base. For the Rutherfords Brinckerhoff, Barclay and Berry did good work. Following is the score by innings:

Bloomfield	0	1	0	0	2	4	4	5	0	—16
Rutherford	0	0	0	0	0	2	0	1	0	—3

Last Night's Fire.

While the brakemen of a freight train on the N. Y. & G. L. R. R. were loading empty kerosene and gasoline barrels in a box-car at the Spruce Street freight-house at ten o'clock last night, an explosion occurred and the car was soon ablaze. The engineer ran the burning car on a siding below Walnut Street and an alarm was sounded from box 49 at Williamson and Belleville Avenues. Excelsior Hose Co. was the first to reach the scene, but did not carry enough hose to get a stream on the burning car. With the assistance of Phœnix the fire was soon extinguished.

Annoyed by Bad Boys.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Williams, an aged and very respectable couple residing on Willow Street, are very much annoyed by bad boys who hoot at them when they appear on the street. Mr. Williams says he has stood the abuse of the mischievous boys just as long as he is going to, and the next time he or his wife is insulted or made the victim of the malicious pranks of the young rowdies he is going to appeal to the magistrate for protection.

Amateur Acting in Union Hall.

The entertainment given on Wednesday and Thursday evenings of this week in Union Hall under the auspices of the young ladies of the Church of the Sacred Heart was a very pleasant affair. The programme consisted of a one-act farce entitled "Dandelion's Dodges," in which the following cast appeared:

Dandy	Mr. Chas. Durning
Mr. T. Dibbs	Mr. D. J. Brady
Thornbrake	Mr. Joseph Durr
Jeems	Mr. Otto Weimer
Madge	Miss Minnie Kelly
Mrs. Armitage	Miss Teresa Quinn

Mr. Durning as Dandy, a country bumpkin employed as a scarecrow, made quite a hit. He was the funny man of the play, and as its title indicates it was his artful dodges that gave zest to the performance. Daniel J. Brady as Turniberry Dibbs, a conceited fop possessed of unlimited wealth, sustained his part in a very able manner. Mr. Durr, as Squire Thornbrake, carried out his part in the dignified manner expected of a man in occupying the social position of an English Squire. Miss Minnie Kelly was bright and vivacious as Madge, a country milk maid. She was perfectly at ease on the stage, and entered into the spirit of the play with a realism that tended to make the audience overlook the fact that she was merely acting a part. Miss Teresa Quinn as Mrs. Armitage, a widow, for whose hand Squire Thornbrake and Dibbs were rival suitors, sustained the role assigned to her in a very creditable manner.

The second part of the programme, the operetta entitled "Miracle of the Roses," was performed by about thirty-five young ladies attired in handsome costumes. A calcium light threw its powerful glare on the stage and gave brillancy to the scene. Frequent changes in colors produced a very pretty effect. The principal parts were sustained by Miss Mary O'Brien and Miss Mary E. Higgins, both excellent vocalists. The singing of the choruses was very well executed, particularly the song of the "Milk Drinkers."

Death of Mr. R. H. Zeubler.

Randolph H. Zeubler, a well-known resident of this town died at his home, No. 225 Washington Avenue, at midnight on Sunday, from consumption, at the age of forty-nine years. Mr. Zeubler was an expert telegrapher and opened the first telegraph office in Bloomfield. He was for twenty years manager of the Western Union Telegraph Company's office at Hoboken, but for the past three years has been in the New York office of that company. He was a veteran of the late war, and lost his left arm in the battle of Gettysburg, for which he received a pension. He leaves a widow and four young children. His funeral took place Wednesday afternoon from his late residence. Van Houten Post, G. A. R. of Jersey City, of which deceased was a member, accompanied by its drum corps, and Pierson Post of this place attended in a body. The services at the grave were conducted by Van Houten Post, and prayer was offered by the Rev. Dr. Ballantine. He was buried with full military honors.

A Rapid Depreciation.

When the East Jersey Water Company was negotiating for right of way for the pipe line through Brookdale, the value placed on farm land by the owners was astonishingly high. Assessor Baxter recently made a tour of the locality, and is much surprised at the rapidity with which the high-priced land has depreciated. According to the story told to the Assessor the land is a burden to its owners.

Inauguration of Free Delivery.

Free postal delivery went into operation last Wednesday. The carriers met with many difficulties in performing their work for the first two or three days, but Postmaster Hayes says that matters are running smoother now, and improving daily. Failure to properly address letters by indicating the street and house number is one of the greatest difficulties the carriers have to contend with. Many houses in town are still unnumbered. Carriers are not obliged to deliver letters where there is no house number.

Carrier Hall's district, the third, was found to be too large for one man to cover, and Sub-Carrier Wallace Cadmus has been put on duty to assist Hall. The placing of the mail-boxes about the town has caused an increase in the amount of mail matter received at the Post-office. Mischievous boys who have an idea that the mail-boxes can be made depositories for grass, sticks, stones and other debris will find that they have made a serious mistake if they are caught. It is a very serious offence to trifle with the mail-boxes, and if the nuisance is continued the Post-office officials will soon look up the culprits.

When free delivery was first started in East Orange and Montclair it was a long time before it worked satisfactory, and it will doubtless be the same here. The public may be called on to exercise much patience. It has been demonstrated that the position of letter-carrier is no sinecure.

Orphan's Picnic.
